

Anne J. MacArthur (nee Campbell) 1909-1998,

- Born in 1909 in Nassagaweya (Milton) on the family farm
- Raised in Nassagaweya (Milton), Campbell's very early settler in the Area
- Attended Milton area schools rural and Milton High School, University of Toronto, the Ont. Teachers College
- A wife and mother
- Member of St. David's Church where she & her family were very involved over the yrs. She is interred in St. David's Church Cemetery
 - o Taught Sunday School
- Taught for over 30 yrs
 - o Training School for Girls in Galt, Port Arthur High School
 - o During the war at Cambridge, England
 - o School for Mentally Challenged in Toronto
 - o Milton 27 yrs (Martin St. High School & Milton District High School
- 1973 she retired, there were over 900 -students, former students, colleagues etc were in attendance.
- She touched the lives of thousands of students and always encouraging them
- 1965 She entered Politics in Nassagaweya Township, Halton County
 - o Served as a Councillor starting in 1965
 - o Deputy-Reeve
 - o Reeve of the township (only women to do so) 1969
- 1973 she was Warden of Halton County (forerunner of the Position of Chairperson of the Region of Halton, today the Region of Halton, a First for women
- Served as a Councillor Town of Milton 1978
- Served as Mayor of the Town of Milton 1974-1976 (only women to do so)
- One of the founding members of the Niagara Escarpment Commission
- Anne worked on the Ont. Gov't Pits & Quarries Legislation Act of 1970. She prevented further defacing of the Escarpment
- Anne was a defender of our Escarpment from day one
- She was never afraid to hold her own with her male counterparts – a trail blazer as it were for her gender.
- Enjoyed Antiques, operated a Antique Shop in Campbellsville
- Enjoyed her garden, cribbage, traveling, reading, history, The Toronto Blue Jay's
- She help shape the landscape of our Community and touched thousands of lives. She was a mentor to many students and colleagues alike.
- She gave the 1st half of her life to teaching and the 2nd to her community serving.

*Another first for Anne J. MacArthur: Milton now has a school which is named after the first women, whom young students can look up to and be inspired that all things are possible!!